Description

Tanjore Painting is a classical South Indian painting style, which originated from Tanjore in Tamilnadu back in the 17th century. They had used the same to decorate the walls of temples, palaces and homes since the Chola dynasty. The most common subjects are Ganesha, Krishna, Radha Krishna, Butter-Thief Krishna, Yashodha Krishna, Lakshmi, Saraswathi, Balaji - Padmavathi Thaayar, Jesus Christ, Sai Baba, Buddha and other religious and portraits. They are characterized by rich, flat and vivid colors, simple iconic composition, glittering gold foils overlaid on delicate but extensive gesso work and inlay of glass beads and pieces or very rarely precious and semi-precious gems. From the FRAMES EMPIRE, we bring you an exclusive selection of traditional tanjore paintings made using 22 carat gold foils and teak wood frames. Materials used in the painting include Plywood, Cloth, paints, semi-precious stones, arabic gum, chalk powder and teakwood for the frames. Gold foils are obtained from goldsmiths directly in the form of leaflets. The Paintings are 100% handmade and natural also known as Thanjavur Paintings. Tanjore paintings are made by skilled artisans and it involves dedication and creativity. Common sizes are 6x8, 8x10, 10x12, 12x15, 16x20, 18x24, 20x16, 24x18, 30x24, 36x24, 48x36 (all in inches) up to 6 feet. Frames are customizable.
